

The Memorial Clock in Station Road dedicated to those named below who lost their lives
when enemy bombs fell on our town
during World War II

23 August 1940

Irene Doris Avery (Age 31)
Joan Mabel Bourne (Age 20)
Archibald Ernest Bursey (Age 15)
Albert Ernest Claydon (Age 60)
Erna Dorothea Elizabeth Cooper (Age 24)
Maurice Carlyon Cooper (Age 30)
Evelyn Davies (Age 26) (married to Cpl Thomas Davies)
Ivy Adina Eagle (Age 45)
Eliza Sophia Govier (Age 50)
Barbara Ena Green (Age 17)
Helena Hawkins (Age 42)
Mildred Strangways Irwin (Age 55)
Louis Frederic Stuart Matthews (Age 29)
Dorothy Gladys Pickering (Age 43)
William George Pitman (Age 50)
Alfred Aaron Charles Probert (Age 30)
Hilda Dorothy May Probert (Age 25)
Jeanette Margaret Probert (Age 4)
Samuel Tosdivine (Age 75)
Bertie Edwin Witt (Age 57)

Corporal Thomas Davies, 2nd Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers (married to Evelyn Davies)

Fusilier Leonard Dean, 2nd Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers
Fusilier Arthur France, 2nd Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers
Captain George MacDonald Rowan, Royal Artillery
Gunner Thomas Hill, 77 Field Regiment, Royal Artillery

8 August 1942

Gladys Mabel Richardson (Age 52)

22 January 1943

Brian Eric Holloway (Age 6)
Evelyn Edith Morin (Age 38)
Gabrielle Evelyn Morin (Age 11)
Norma Mary Morin (Age 9)
Pauline Edith Morin (Age 8)

We Will Remember Them